

Adventure story.

It was sunrise, and Tom woke up. There was silence in the house. He looked for his father, he called him. Tom was brave and courageous. His father never went outside on the morning, so he didn't understand.

He decided to go out. He cried out: « Dad, Daaaaad ! » But nobody answered. He walked again and again, and he saw a dwarf. He was eating raw meat. Tom asked « I have lost my father, did you see him ? He is tall and slim, he has green eyes, and he has short, brown, raid hair. Have you seen him ? » But he didn't answer. He looked at Tom during a long time, but he didn't give any answers. Tom lost his patience, so he started to walk again.

It was dark and cold, he was in a big forest. Nobody was speaking, and he began to be scared and worried. Suddendly, he heard a scream. He believed he hear his father's voice. He ran very quickly, and finally, he arrived in front of a cave. Inside, he saw a light, like a fire... At the begining, he thought it was his father was making fire, but he heard an evil scream. Since Tom was powerful, he did a step aside and he came in the cave. He took his sword, and he ran again.

When he was in the cave, he saw his father and a... dragon ! He was terrified, but he didn't give up. His father was under the dragon and his leg was red like blood. The dragon captured his daddy. When he saw the sword, the dragon began to fly, but Tom threw his weapon in the air at the same time. He fought with a dragon during long time, and his father was worried. The dragon succeeded to fly, and Tom helped his father.

« - How are you dad ?

- H've been hurt... I've been terrified Tom.

- I know, but it's okay now, I have saved you, it's okay! »

They came home, and Tom helped his father to go upstairs, and went to his bedroom.

After, Tom slept, and dreamt, because it was a bad story and he needed a good dream. Tom was a warrior. He had always been a warrior.

Axelle, 3eB